School Accessibility Plan

Purpose of the Plan

The purpose of this plan is to show how Russell Hall Primary School intends, over time, to increase accessibility to the physical environment, the curriculum and written information for all pupils, staff and visitors with a disability.

Definition of disability

A person has a disability if he or she has a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

Key Aims

- Improve access to the physical environment of the school, adding specialist facilities as necessary. This covers improvements to the physical environment of the school and physical aids to access education.
- Increase access to the curriculum for pupils with a disability, expanding the curriculum as necessary to ensure that pupils with a disability are as, equally, prepared for life as are the able-bodied pupils; (If a school fails to do this they are in breach of the DDA). This covers teaching and learning and the wider curriculum of the school such as participation in after-school clubs, leisure and cultural activities or school visits. It also covers the provision of specialist aids and equipment, which may assist these pupils in accessing the curriculum.
- Improve the delivery of written information to pupils, staff, parents and visitors with disabilities. Examples might include handouts, timetables, textbooks and information about the school and school events. The information should be made available in various preferred formats within a reasonable time frame.

Legal Background

This document meets the requirements of schedule 10 of the Equality Act 2010 and the Department for Education (DfE) guidance for schools on the Equality Act 2010.

The Equality Act 2010 defines an individual as disabled if they have a physical or mental impairment that has a 'substantial' and 'long-term' adverse effect on their ability to undertake normal day to day activities. Under the Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Code of Practice, 'long-term' is defined as 'a year or more' and 'substantial' is defined as 'more than minor or trivial'. The definition includes sensory impairments such as those affecting sight or hearing, and long-term health conditions such as asthma, diabetes, epilepsy and cancer.

Schools are required to make 'reasonable adjustments' for pupils with disabilities under the Equality Act 2010, to alleviate any substantial disadvantage that a disabled pupil faces in comparison with non-disabled pupils. This can include, for example, the provision of an auxiliary aid or adjustments to premises.

Contextual Information

The school is an old Victorian Building. Adaptions to the building have been made in the form of an extension to create a school hall and an extension of an additional classroom which is currently the Year 4 classroom. The first floor of the school building and playground is accessible for a child in a wheelchair through both the main entrance and the entrance to the Reception Class. The school has improved access to the ground floor areas through widening the doorway. In addition a hygiene suite was created in school to support pupils needing catheterisation and hoisting.

The Current Range of Disabilities within Russell Hall Primary School

The school has children with a range of disabilities which include, Communication and Interaction (ASC etc.), Cognition and Learning (Dyslexia etc.), Social, Emotional and Mental Health and Physical & Medical. When children enter school with specific disabilities, the school works with the families and relevant external agencies to understand how to provide the appropriate care and resources to pupils to ensure that they are not placed at a disadvantage. Where necessary a medical care plan is created.

Information from pupil data and school audit

Russell Hall Primary School is a one form entry school, spanning Nursery to Year 6. Initial information to establish the profile of the pupils in Nursery and their needs is gathered by school staff. The information is collated prior to starting school by:

Annual questionnaires are sent to parents asking for information on disabilities. Discussion and communication with parents feeds into and informs the points for action including :
